OFFICE ORDER

In terms of the latest notification by Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, DOPT vide notice no. 407/16/2016-AVD-IV(LP) dt. 01.12.16, GOI is in the process of finalising fresh set of Rules for filing of declarations of assets and liabilities under the Lokpal & Lokayuktas Act, 2013. The said Rules will be notified in due course to prescribe the form, manner & timelines for filing of declarations of assets and liabilities by the Public Servants under the revised provisions of the said Act. As such, there is no requirement for filing of declarations of assets and liabilities by the Public Servants now under the Act.

However, all executives are required to make declaration of immovable property, in terms of the Rule 19.5 of the Coal India Executives conduct, Discipline & Appeal Rules, 1978, as on 31st Dec of each year by 31st Jan of the succeeding year. Accordingly, the declaration of immovable property as on 31.12.2016 must be filed by 31.01.2017 online.

In case of executives, who have already declared immovable property, either under CDA Rule 19.5 or under section 44 of Lokpal & Lokayuktas Act, 2013, as on 31st Mar, 2015 & 31st Mar, 2016, the declaration will be treated as on 31st Dec, 2014 & 31st Dec, 2015. If there is any need to change the declaration by any executive due to shifting of cut-off date, he/she will be allowed make such changes after resetting the acknowledgement through Nodal Officer. In case of executives, who have not made any declaration of immovable property online under any of the Act/Rule, must complete the declaration of immovable property under CDA Rules by 31st Jan, 2017 for all the years.
