OFFICE ORDER

It has been observed that there was lack of clarity as to officer of which Division of CIL shall swear the affidavit, especially in the cases where multiple departments are involved. The matter was examined in detail and decided that henceforth following principle shall be followed in this regard:

“One of the Executives nominated or assigned by the HoD of dealing division should sign and swear the affidavits. The division responsible for initiating proposal / obtaining approval / issuing orders, which have been assailed before Court and is the custodian of relevant documents / records causing issuance of impugned order would constitute the dealing division for the said purpose”

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
